PREMIUM DANISH AUDIO

 PRODUCT PROMOTIONAL AND GIFT CATALOGUE

ANC

is an abbreviation for "Active Noise Cancellation". It is a built-in technology that, through small integrated microphones and speakers, generates a type of artificial "noise" in the headphones that humans can barely hear. This reduces external noise and sounds around you, allowing for a more immersive audio experience with fewer distractions.

HYBRID ANC

is a more advanced technology than standard ANC. By using both external and internal built-in microphones, HYBRID ANC reduces external noise across a wider frequency range, providing a better and more immersive noise-canceling audio experience.

ENC

is an abbreviation for "Environmental Noise Cancellation." The technology is built into the internal microphone in your headphones. ENC reduces background noise through the microphone, making your voice come through more clearly to the people you are speaking with.

AMBIENT / TRANSPARENCY MODE

Selected headphones have this feature, which uses small built-in microphones to amplify external sounds from your surroundings, allowing you to hear what's happening around you more clearly. This is especially useful when someone is speaking to you or in situations where you need to stay extra alert.

ABOUT MIEGO

PREMIUM DANISH SOUND & DESIGN

MIEGO is a specialized Danish audio brand founded in 2010.

We are dedicated to wireless sound for your active everyday life and lifestyle.

The name MIEGO [mii-e-go] means 'me on-the-go' and reflects our mission and core idea as a brand: to give people the ability to take great sound with them everywhere, no matter where you go — indoors and outdoors.

We focus on even the smallest product details because we believe they make a big difference in the end.

We are proud that several MIEGO products have received international recognition as test winning products and have been awarded for both excellent sound and stylish design.

FUNCTIONAL DESIGNS FOR AN ACTIVE LIFESTYLE

Our premium wireless headphones and speakers are designed with a strong focus on functionality and usability, making them a perfect fit for an active lifestyle.

MIEGO collaborates with a variety of athletes in Denmark and abroad to develop products and increase awareness of our brand.

MIEGO is a proud longtime member of the industry organization for Denmark's audio sector: Danish Sound Cluster.

READY. SET. MIEGO.
