sackit™

sackit is a Danish design brand creating furniture, lighting and lifestyle products for indoor and outdoor spaces.

Our approach is rooted in function, material choice and long-term use. We design products that are easy to live with, easy to combine and made for everyday use, whether in a private home, hospitality setting or professional environment.

We work with durable materials and considered construction, with a focus on products that can remain relevant and in use for many years. Across the collection, we continue to introduce recycled and responsibly sourced materials where they make sense, without compromising function or product quality.

For B2B gifting, sackit offers design-led products that feel considered, useful and lasting. From lighting and electronics to select furniture pieces, the collection makes it easy to find gifts that work across occasions, recipients and budgets.
